

Karl Heinz Salzburger
Vice President, VF Corporation and Group President, International

Karl Heinz Salzburger is Vice President, VF Corporation and Group President, International. Based in Lugano, Switzerland, Salzburger has responsibility for driving the growth of VF's diverse portfolio of jeanswear, outdoor, imagewear, sportswear and contemporary brands throughout Europe, the Middle East, Africa and the Asia-Pacific region.

Prior to his current appointment in December 2008, Salzburger served as President, Europe, Middle East, Africa (EMEA) and Asia for VF Corporation since August 2006. He previously served as President of VF's Outdoor - International coalition since January 2001. Prior to that, Salzburger was President of The North Face and Chief Executive Officer of The North Face, Europe.

Prior to joining VF in 1997, Salzburger served in various capacities for Benetton SportsSystem S.p.A., where he held positions such as President, Nordica group and President, BSS Subsidiaries.